

ST. CROIX VALLEY FOUNDATION

Engaging individuals in communities to build the future

2015 Annual Report

LETTER TO OUR PARTNERS

Dear Friends,

The theme of this year's Annual Report is Partnerships. In the world we live in today, if we work alone we are much less effective than if we work together. Knowing that, our Founders worked from our earliest days to nurture partnerships with individuals, organizations and businesses throughout the Valley.

This year St. Croix Valley Foundation (SCVF) celebrates its 20th year since its ideation, and in 1996 it was formally established. We spent much of this past year reflecting on, and learning from our history and thanking our Founders for having the vision and foresight in 1995 and 1996 to create an entity that is today a thriving, robust community resource. We also spent the year looking ahead, defining the impact SCVF will have on the St. Croix Valley and its many diverse and wonderful communities over the next 20 years.

Now more than ever, SCVF serves in a pivotal role as a bi-state, regional collaborative leader, shedding light on issues and channeling resources to address challenges, and facilitate solutions. We concluded that our success in making an impact was due largely to relationships with our partners.

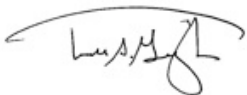

We value inclusion, we demonstrate integrity, and we strive to continually innovate. This is the kind of philanthropic leadership you have told us that the Valley needs and deserves, and we are proud to serve.

As SCVF nears $50 million in gifts, we are unapologetically focused on growing the charitable assets of our regional Foundation in order to more effectively and significantly solve problems and build on opportunities for change. With a steadfast commitment to stewardship which represents the mission, and margin of your SCVF, we are marshaling the resources entrusted to us by donors over the past 20 years, to solve the problems of the present and plan for the future – and we're doing so in new and innovative ways.

At the heart of it all, we (donors, Board and Committee members, Affiliates, professional team, nonprofits and leaders across our six-county region) are a powerful partnership that transforms lives and communities through our collective efforts. These are exciting times for SCVF and for the Valley, and we hope you will join with us in pursuit of our many ambitious goals.

Thank you for your continued trust, generosity and support.

Sincerely

Todd Gillingham, Board Chair

Jane Hetland Stevenson, President

PARTNERSHIP WITH THE PHIPPS CENTER FOR THE ARTS

The Phipps Center for the Arts is a jewel of an institution right in our back yard, and SCVF is fortunate to have a relationship with it of long standing. It celebrates the creative spirit of all who live in the St. Croix Valley, and is a leader in attracting artists and patrons through an eclectic mix of creating, producing, presenting and exhibiting artistic expression.

Its vision is that educational offerings will welcome persons of all skill levels to explore the arts. Programming takes place at the Center as well as at sites throughout the St. Croix Valley region. Talented artists, loyal attendees, enthusiastic volunteers and generous contributors support this exemplary organization.

Its programming offers exhibitions in The Galleries, instruction in the visual and performing arts, community and children's theater productions, concerts by the finest musicians in the region and creative work of local and regional choreographers as well as an array of special events.

Theater

During the 2014-15 season, the Drama Council produced Flanagan's Wake, Seussical, Pump Boys and Dinettes, The Odd Couple (Female Version), and the Agatha Christie mystery A Murder is Announced

The Phipps Children's Theater mounted a stage adaptation of The Wizard of Oz featuring actors ages 10 - 22, The Sleeping Beauty and Once Upon a Crime: The Trial of Goldilocks featuring area students in grades 7 – 9, the multigenerational holiday show Bah Humbug! Scrooge's Christmas Carol, and Disney's Aladdin Jr. featuring area students in grades 10 – 12.

Music

The 2014-15 music series featured soprano Margaret Jane Wray and pianist Layton James performing Brahms to Broadway to Bacharach, the classic swing of the Minnesota Jazz Orchestra, Copper Street Brass Quintet performing The Evolution of the Brass Quintet, Pro Arte Quartet string ensemble, and the acappella trio Tonic Sol-fa. The Wurlitzer theater pipe organ series was comprised of Ron Rhode, Dave Wickerham playing a holiday program, and Clark Wilson accompanying a Silent Comedy Film Festival.

Visual Arts

During the 2014-15 season, the Visual Arts Council presented the work of over 600 artists in 10 gallery exhibitions; through the Gift Gallery, in the Hudson Area Library, in the Healing Arts Programs at Hudson Hospital & Clinic and Westfields Hospital & Clinic in New Richmond, in the Enriching Arts Program at Croixdale (a senior living community in Bayport), and in the Spirit of the St. Croix Art Festival in Hudson's Lakefront Park (a partnership with the Hudson Area Chamber of Commerce and Tourism Bureau.)

In January 2015, The Phipps embarked on a new partnership with Belwin Conservancy in Afton, Minnesota to develop an art, science, and nature initiative that will engage communities and connect them with the natural world. Classes and activities to be held at the new solar pavilion under construction at the Lucy Winton Bell Athletic Fields will pilot this new effort.

The Art Bench Trail: Explore the St. Croix River Valley Bench by Bench

Between 2006 and 2014, community members in Prescott, Hudson, Somerset, Osceola, and St. Croix Falls, Wisconsin, as well as Hastings, Bayport, and Marine on St. Croix, Minnesota, came together to create functional artworks called Art Benches. The benches reflect the unique character of their towns, and express each community's understanding and appreciation of the St. Croix River and the surrounding area. They are also a perfect place to have a seat.

In September 2014, the eighth bench of the Art Bench Trail (See below) was unveiled in Osceola, Wisconsin. Located in Mill Pond Park, this unique community art project, which received funding from the National Endowment for the Arts, was designed during a four-week summer school class by 12 3rd – 8th grade students working with artist David Markson of River Falls and teacher Amy Klein.

Osceola Bench

The idea behind the Bench Project, a partnership with the St. Croix Valley Foundation, is that everyone has a creative spirit. This has included Girl Scouts and 4-H members, senior citizens and carpenters, high school students and their parents, and many more folks. Everyone and anyone could have a role in the design, construction, and installation.

The benches are great destinations for exploring the St. Croix Valley. A bench is by nature a place to rest and reflect, usually with companions. We call it the "Art Bench Trail," and residents and visitors are encouraged to "Explore the St. Croix River Valley Bench-by-Bench." Connected by rural roads perfect for scenic drives or bike rides, the benches serve as ideal waysides.

Thanks to generous support from the Kresge Foundation, The Phipps Center for the Arts is promoting the Art Bench Trail far-and-wide to encourage people to visit, explore, and engage with the people and places that make the St. Croix Valley special.

Atrium Gallery Watershed What We Need is Here 2014-15 Seminar Artists Group Exhibition

This was a project of "What We Need is Here," a Valley-wide partnership to encourage sustainable living. It received funding from the St. Croix Valley Foundation and is supported in part by a grant from the Wisconsin Arts Board with funds from the state of Wisconsin.

Once a month, from May 2014 through March 2015, a dedicated group of local artists gathered at the Center and off-site locations in the St. Croix River watershed to participate in a series of seminars exploring three overarching questions: What are sustainable art making practices? What is the role of artists to increase public understanding of art and sustainable issues? And, how can artists effect change?

Watershed (pictured below) featured original work influenced by participating artists' experiences in the seminar series. The title for the show was chosen for its dual meanings, both of which related to the group's experiences: "an area or region drained by a river" and "a time when an important change happens."

PARTNERSHIP WITH CARPENTER ST. CROIX VALLEY NATURE CENTER

Five little girls circle around as a volunteer crouches, giving them a better look at the bright yellow and sharp black of a male American Goldfinch. As the girls stare in awe and their mothers smile, Yvonne Szatkowski holds the bird and explains how she caught it. A bander at Carpenter St. Croix Valley Nature Center (CNC), she heads to the Minnesota campus every week to help record bird information for science—and to give the next generation a better appreciation of nature.

For years, CNC has been a place where young minds and citizen science meet. A partner of the St. Croix Valley Foundation (SCVF) since 2006, Carpenter Nature Center's mission is to foster appreciation and inspire stewardship of the natural world. In pursuit of that vision, CNC serves families and individuals who come to experience the beauty of Minnesota and Wisconsin. K-12 students from all over the St. Croix Valley take part in educational programs, which are an integral part of the nature center.

For children who typically spend their days focused on a screen or bent over a textbook, being out in nature can be an exciting opportunity. Students participate in hands-on learning, listen to trained naturalists, and run their fingers along the scales of the turtles and snakes they read about in the classroom. Getting kids out and about also helps decrease cases of obesity and ADHD, as well as giving them a lifelong connection to the outdoors.

Children participating in hands-on learning at Carpenter Nature Center

As CNC helps to sustain the planet—and the next generation's interest in nature—the St. Croix Valley Foundation helps sustain Carpenter Nature Center. In addition to housing the endowment, SCVF has also awarded several grants to Carpenter Nature Center over the years. In 2006, a strategic planning grant incorporated a fundraising challenge to grow the endowment. As a result, CNC partnered with organizations up and down the river, building community and raising over $50,000—an amount which SCVF matched. They also provided grants that allowed Carpenter Nature Center to participate in several strategic planning seminars. In 2012, SCVF sponsored the Healthy Together challenges, a series which encouraged people to participate in the community and explore nature.

As grants from SCVF help keep CNC's admission free and its programs low-cost, Carpenter Nature Center takes those gifts and puts them toward environmental education and preservation. As the years pass, Carpenter Nature Center and the St. Croix Valley Foundation grow deeper in their partnership—one they hope will continue to benefit the people of the St. Croix Valley community for years into the future.

Making an Impact through Grants

Competitive Grant Programs

SCVF provides donors with the opportunity to create new or add to existing Valley Impact Funds for causes that are closest to their hearts, in perpetuity. The Foundation has funds addressing a variety of interests including the arts, music education, health and wellness, the environment, and animals. The advantage of these funds is their mission is unchanging yet they remain current and flexible. We cannot guess tomorrow's issues or know which organizations can best address those issues at that time. However, through our Valley Impact Funds and our competitive grants programs, the SCVF places grant dollars in the most capable hands at the right time.

Since 2004, the SCVF has awarded close to $800,000 to over 400 organizations through its competitive grants program.

In 2015 the St. Croix Valley Foundation awarded $85,860 to 37 organizations located in Burnett, Pierce, Polk and St. Croix counties in Wisconsin and Chisago and Washington counties in Minnesota.

Valley Impact through Health and Wellness Grants

Twelve organizations received a total of $27,151 through the Health and Wellness Grant Program. The focus of this program is to address the challenge of childhood obesity by exploring the interactions between physical activity, healthy eating and the rich, natural resources the St. Croix region has to offer. Grants ranged from $360 to $4,893 and funded an array of projects from Luck School Harvest Garden to equipment for the Girl Scouts of Minnesota and Wisconsin River Valley's Healthy Living Program at Girls Scout Camp Lakamaga in Marine on St. Croix.

The "Better Shelf for Better Health" grant provides the opportunity for a partnership between Somerset Community Food Pantry and PowerUp, a program of the Lakeview Foundation. PowerUp is a community-wide youth health initiative striving to make better eating and active living easy and fun, so that youth can reach their full potential. PowerUp will work with Somerset Community Food Pantry to redesign their food shelf to increase the quantity, visibility and appeal of healthy foods to clients.

Valley Impact through Music Education Grants

Eleven schools received a total of $32,199 through the Music Education Grant Program. These grants are intended to provide resources to sustain and enhance music programs in schools in the St. Croix Valley. This year, grants ranged from $220 to $5,000 to fund equipment and experiences, and most importantly, give the gift of music to thousands of children in the region.

Thank you so much for the grant from The Belisle Fund of the St. Croix Valley Foundation. This grant will allow us to purchase parasite medication that will be very beneficial in improving the comfort and health of the animals in our shelter and making them much more likely to be adopted in a timely manner. Thank you again for all the St. Croix Valley Foundation does for our community.

Dana Madalon

Rocky Branch Elementary in River Falls, WI won a grant for $220 to take 75 second grade students to a Young People's Concert performed by the St. Croix Valley Symphony Orchestra at University of Wisconsin River Falls. The concert featured European classics including works by Tchaikovsky, Beethoven, Brahms, and Bach. Prior to the event, the children participated in an Instrument Petting Zoo, which allowed them to have a hands-on-experience touching and playing the instruments.

Valley Impact through Valley Arts Grants

The Valley Arts Initiative Grant Program is supported by a grant from the Wisconsin Arts Board with funds from the State of Wisconsin and by Hugh J. Andersen Foundation. This year, the SCVF awarded $20,000 to eleven organizations. The funded projects draw audiences in the hundreds and even thousands to the Valley (Franconia Sculpture Park – 2015 Art & Artists Celebration, Music St. Croix – collaborating with Valley Chamber Chorale and St. Croix Jazz Orchestra to perform a free community concert, and The Phipps Center for the Arts – continues to deepen the “What We Need is Here Artist Seminar Series”).

Canvas Health-Jammin Art

Canvas Health Inc. serving Washington County received a $1,000 Valley Arts Initiative grant for their Jammin' Art project. Jammin' Art will offer hands-on-learning and exhibiting for adults who live with mental illness. The program will provide a year of opportunities in the visual arts for approximately 30 adults living with diseases such as severe depression, schizophrenia, and bi-polar disorder. The participants will experience 8-10 different art mediums (drawing, watercolor, mosaic, Yupo paper, etc.) through hands-on multi-week classes taught by professional artists. Through this project, Canvas Health plans to bring hope, healing and recovery to participant's lives.

St. Croix National Scenic Riverway Endowment

In 2007 the National Park Service's St. Croix National Scenic Riverway opened a fund at the Foundation using money paid by a power company in order to mitigate scenic easements. Each year our local Park Service uses the "spendable" from this fund to pay for enhancements of river habitat, to pay for seasonal employees and for other projects not currently paid for by U.S. Congressional funds. National Parks all over the country are seriously underfunded. The St. Croix National Scenic Riverway is no different. By 2020 nearly all the spendable from this fund will be used to hire seasonal employees. The Park Service is eager to increase this endowment. So, if you love the river and want to provide for a "margin for excellence," give us a call. We can tell you more about this important fund.

For all of us who love the river, have benefited from this important endowment or want to provide for "a margin of excellence", let's work together to support this invaluable resource.

THE LEGACY SOCIETY

A bequest or other planned gift to the St. Croix Valley Foundation is an ideal way to leave a legacy for your community. Several people realized this even in the early years of the Foundation and in recent years a number of people have notified us that they have made provisions in their estate plans for the Foundation. To recognize these far-sighted people, the Board of Directors created the Legacy Society. We acknowledge with appreciation both those listed below and those who wish to have their decisions remain confidential.
